SUBURBAN WON BY GO BETWEEN

Thirty Thousand People Saw the Great Race at Sheepshead Bay Course.

JOCKEY SHAW'S GREAT RIDE

RECORD OF HERMIS ALMOST EQUALLED.

New York, June 21.—Alexander Shield's 3-year-old Meddler-Indigo gelding, Go Between, carrying 116 pounds and third choice at 6 to 1, won the $30,000 suburban handicap today. One of the largest crowds that ever witnessed the event was at the Sheepshead Bay course of the Coney Island Jockey club. Go Between was but a short head in front of F. R. Hittchcock's 4-year-old Hamburg colt, Dandelion, who was equal favored in the betting with Calmington at 3 to 1. Colminal Girl, backed from 20 to 1 to 5, was third, three lengths behind the first two horses and the same distance in front of the field.

Head and Head. The finish was a terrific drive, Go Between catching Dandelion at the sixteenth and fighting it out head and head to the wire. Shaw, on the winner, outrode Miller. As the two leaders rushed past the stand the 20,000 or more enthusiastic spectators rose to their feet and wildly shouted encouragement.

Delay at the Post. There was a delay of ten minutes at the post, due to the bad behavior of Proper and Colonial Girl. When the barrier was raised Proper was turned sideways. He bumped Calmington and interfered seriously with the latter's chances in the early part of the race. This incident marred an otherwise good start.

Winner Was in the Bunch. Cederstrome and Astronomer rushed away into the lead, with Dandelion third. Around the paddock turn and into the back stretch Cederstrome opened up a gap of three lengths. Go Between was in the bunch and Colonial Girl was trailing in the pack. Coming out of the back stretch Cederstrome began to pull away and the entire field closed up, so that seven or eight lengths covered the distance from leader to last horse.

Dandelion in the Stretch. Sweeping into the stretch Dandelion was leading by a length. Cederstrome was second, back of Calmington. Dolly Sparker and Tokalon were to be reckoned with. And behind these was Go Between, with Shaw sitting still in the saddle. The gelding's stride was running and the entire field closed up, so that seven or eight lengths covered the distance from leader to last horse.

How They Finished. Colonial Girl dropped into third place from nowhere. The others finished in the following order: Aggie, Tokalon, Proper, Dolly Sparker, Kuroki, Calmington, Astronomer, Cederstrome and Oxford. The 2-year-old stakes race, won by unbeaten Paget colt, was held at 2 to 1, and was soundly whipped by James R. Keene's Ballot.

He was never out of training from his yearling force, and retired this spring, being raced both winter and summer. He was bred to several mares this spring."

CHALLENGE FOR SAMUELSON. To the Salt Lake Herald: I understand that W. E. Samuelson has made several statements the past week that he is not getting a square deal on the saucer track, he claiming that Lawson and myself have to team together in order to defeat him. I wish you would state for me that I will ride Samuelson any kind of race which he can name, the winner to take $10,000, and will bet him $1 to every $1 he can produce that I will defeat him; but the winner must take all of the purse.

Salt Lake City, June 21. NOTED HORSEMAN SHOT. New York, June 21.—John Phillips, superintendent of the Parkway Driving club and a well-known turfman, was shot and seriously wounded last night by two high women while on the way to his residence in the grounds of the club, Brooklyne.

AMERICANS OUT IN FORCE

Sit in King Edward's Pavilion to Witness the Horse Races.

Ascot, England, June 21.—Although every day of Ascot week has attractions, Thursday, gold-cup day, is considered the great one of the meeting. This year was no exception, immense crowds going down to see the people gathered in the inclosures and incidentally to witness the races. The Americans were out in force, again going from their hotels in coaches and automobiles. Ambassador and Mrs. Reid, the staff of the American embassy and Congressman and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth rode to Ascot in auto cars, there joining a large number of their compatriots in the royal inclosure. The number of Americans in the king's pavilion this year was quite noticeable. Besides those invited through the embassy, many Americans resident in England were among the royal guests.

The gold cup was won by Bachelor's Button, ridden by Maher, the American jockey. Pretty Polly was second and Achilles third. Five horses started.

ALL HALLOWS TENNIS CLUB.

The All Hallows tennis club was organized yesterday and expects to soon be one of the strongest clubs in the city. Frank Gallagher was elected president and Norman Kane secretary and treasurer. As the club contains many novice players, it is not thought they will cut much figure in the tournament this season, but the club members will be around the All Hallows club should be in the front ranks.

PRIZE MONEY DISCUSSED

Bicycle Riders and Management Discuss Amount Paid Over in Purses.

A meeting of about twenty-five or thirty of the bicycle riders at the saucer track and Manager Johnnie Chapman was held last evening, when the question of prize money was discussed. For some time there has been a growing dissatisfaction among the riders over the prize money paid by the management, and it resulted in about twenty-five or thirty signing an agreement to quit riding unless more money was forthcoming. A meeting of those who signed it was called for last evening, and Manager Chapman was requested to attend.

The question was brought up, and Manager Chapman stated that he was paying larger purses than was paid last year, and was doing what was reasonable. The bicycle riders claim the track is drawing larger prize money than before, and that the prize money is in proportion. The interested parties argued the sides of the question, and it is said, waxed warm at times, but from all that could be learned after the meeting there was nothing doing.

It was given out, however, that a fund would be raised by the pedal-pushers for injured riders, each rider giving 2 per cent of his winnings into this fund.

TENNIS TOURNEY ENTRIES

Secretary Boyd Says Crack Teams Will Compete in State Meet.

Secretary D. McPherson Boyd of the Intermountain Lawn Tennis association announced that entries are daily coming in for the state championship tennis tourney which will close on June 27 at 5 o'clock at his office in the McCormick block. Several fast combinations are showing up, and the championship of the state is expected to be a close one. In the last few days being Dr. C. G. Plummer and Dr. Ralph Richards. They will team in the championship. Raymond, who holds the championship of the east side courts, has not been able to find a partner. Those who know his playing are anxious to see him couple up with a man as good as himself, as such a combination would prove a serious factor in the championship.

HAUSEN PLAYING AT SECOND.

Imagine Bill Hausen playing second base today. What a sight! He is doing these days for Montgomery in the Southern league. Hausen, it will be remembered, was signed by McCloskey to play for St. Louis, but shortly after the season opened was released to Montgomery. This town placed him on the second bag, where, from all accounts, he is making good.

NO RACING AT KIEL.

Kiel, June 21.—There was no yacht racing today. The American auxiliary schooner Otwayana, with her owner, Allison V. Armour, on board, arrived.

SUCKER GETS HIS FEEL BACK

Man Who Was Trimmed in Fake Foot Race Recovers Coin in U. S. Court.

St. Paul, June 21.—A majority opinion of the United States circuit court of appeals late today affirmed the decision of the circuit court of the western district in the case of James C. Stewart, James P. Stewart and the Exchange Bank of Webb City versus H. S. Wright. Judges Hook and Adams delivered the majority opinion and Judge Sanborn delivered the dissenting opinion. The case is commonly known as the "fake foot-race case." Wright sued to recover $5,000 alleged to have been obtained from him by false and fraudulent pretenses. Judgment was rendered for the plaintiff in the circuit court in Missouri. The result of the race, according to the court's review of the case, was arranged in advance, and Wright was induced to place his money temporarily in the possession of one Boatwright, promoter and pretended stockholder, and who promised to return it as soon as he was relieved from a simulated embarrassment arising out of the manipulation of the stake money.

The majority opinion in substance was that the plaintiff might recover, because gambling was fraudulent and that Wright was performing his agreement. The court was not backward in pronouncing the scheme a fraud, and a promoter and pretended stockholder, and who promised to return it as soon as he was relieved from a simulated embarrassment arising out of the manipulation of the stake money.

AM. FORK BEATS SALT LAKE

Visiting Eagles Looked Very Much Like Regular Baseball Team.

The Eagles from American Fork had an easy time with the Salt Lake bunch at Lagoon yesterday. After they had walloped the horse hide all over the field for seven innings they retired with twenty-one runs while the local performers could only credit themselves with four.

To those who read the baseball games in the daily press the names of the American Fork Eagles looked suspiciously like those who play on the regular American Fork team.

When the game started it looked as if Salt Lake would have things its own way. In this inning it scored twice and retired its opponents with a neat double. When the southerners came up the next time the tables were turned and they brought in two tallies while the local drew a goose egg. During the rest of the game American Fork scored from three to five runs an inning and Salt Lake brought in two scattered runs. Curtis, the Salt Lake slab artist, was found for seven singles, six two-baggers, three three-baggers and a home run. His strikeout four men, which was his share, considering the support he received.

The American Fork boys put up a strong game, showing that they had been together many times before, and that they had had their share of practice. This was practically the first time the locals had been together. Hanson, the American Fork twirler, was the star of the day. He fanned fourteen of his opponents and batted a single, a three-bagger and a home run. His home run struck out four men, which was his share, considering the support he received.

Each team had an enthusiastic bunch of rooters behind it, and the feminine part of the American Fork aggregation did a good deal more rooting than the men. About five hundred attended the game. The line-up: Salt Lake..... 0 0 1 0 6 4 Hits..... 10 0 2 1 0 1 0 4 Errors..... 1 0 3 1 3 1 1 1 American Fork..... 0 2 5 4 3 4 2 1 Hits..... 9 2 5 4 3 4 2 1 Errors..... 0 1 0 2 0 1 0 1
